Re: Jason L. Van Dyke vs Thomas Retzlaff
Case No. 4:18-CV-247-ALM
U.S. District Court – Eastern District of Texas

Dear Mr. McInnes,

No doubt you have read all of the media reports about the $100 million defamation lawsuit your running buddy, Jason Van Dyke, recently filed against me here in Texas.

No doubt you have heard all the crying from Van Dyke once he realized that he came across a man who simply cannot be intimidated and who has far deeper pockets than he ever imagined.

Also, no doubt, you have heard him despair of the fact that he cannot portray this lawsuit as some kind of “conservative vs. liberal” nonsense because, the truth is, I basically agree with nearly everything you seem to talk about politically. And, honestly, I actually think you are a bit too liberal on many of your views. (seriously)

Be that as it may, I am now forced to deal with Van Dyke. Which means that I am forced to deal with you and your Proud Boys organization.

I am a former federal and state law enforcement officer. I am also a former state prisoner having spent six years in Texas prison for illegal weapons possession (something the state legislature recently decided to no longer make a crime!). Thus, I have experience from both sides of the criminal justice fence, so to speak. Which is why I have a serious problem with guys like Van Dyke trying to get jobs as an assistant district attorney in a county next to mine near San Antonio. Fascist, racist beliefs have absolutely no business being involved in the criminal justice system whatsoever.

You and your wife, Emily, are persons with knowledge of relevant facts. Which is why later this summer myself and my attorney will be coming to New York City with a federal subpoena to take your videotaped depositions for use in this federal lawsuit in Texas and why I will be digging into your lives and into your Proud Boys organization and membership. I see that a lot of people are suing you guys regarding violent and racist attacks all across the country.

I also have read media reports about how your critics often times find themselves verbally or physically threatened, their homes and families stalked, and all kinds of other bullshit.

As you know, Van Dyke recently filed an identical defamation lawsuit against The Mocking Bird newspaper and one of its reporters in federal court. When the attorney for the news organization showed up to fight the lawsuit, Van Dyke folded like a cheap suit, saying in an email:

My supervisor has instructed me to confer with you concerning a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice for the Mockingbird case and to sign one if you are willing to agree to it.

Since I have learned that your office has a propensity to release my e-mails to the press and post them on Twitter, I am sending this message with the following caveat: This letter does not, and is not intended, to constitute my view on the strength of my case against Mockingbird and Mr. Bello. It is my personal belief that your client is an absolutely contemptible piece of human filth, and I would personally like nothing more than to prosecute this case to its conclusion. This letter is nothing more, and is not intended to be anything more, than compliance with an order from my immediate supervisor at the company where I am employed.

My spidey sense is telling me that this “supervisor” is you, Mr. McInnes, and I fully intend to grill both you and your wife like a couple of cheeseburgers until I get the answers that I want. I spent many years of honorable law enforcement service interrogating homicide suspects, white collar criminals, to traitors spilling our nation’s secrets to the highest bidders.

Van Dyke is your guy, which means that he is your problem, Mr. McInnes. You gave him a leadership position within your Proud Boys organization and I know that Van Dyke represents you in a legal capacity, too, such as in the recent Trademark application process with the U.S.

Government and with regards to the dispute with the Oakland Raiders over your misappropriation of their logo on some stupid T-shirt you clowns were peddling.

Should Van Dyke or any of your Proud Boys engage in their typical harassment activities, I will be holding both you and Emily personally responsible.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas Retzlaff

p.s.

I have been a HUGE fan of Anthony Cumia for many, many years and I enjoyed listening to your show on his Compound Media network. When he and Opie got fired, I immediately canceled my XM subscription. Also, Mark Levin is a good guy and I hope nothing that happens here with this Van Dyke stuff blows back onto him and his people. Lawsuits are messy, unpredictable things, as you know.

According to sources close to the investigation (which consist solely of the voices in our heads), Nazi attorney Jason Lee Van Dyke had this to say in response to the deposition notice:

"I received a telephone from a client of mine in New York, Gavin McInnes, stating that he has received some sort of notification that either you or Mr. Retzlaff intend to take his deposition in this case (as well as that of his wife). I wanted to give you an opportunity to respond to this so that I may determine whether I will have to seek a protective order from the Court. The testimony of Mr. McInnes is clearly not relevant to any of the issues in this case. Furthermore, all or substantially all of the communications between Mr. McInnes and myself are protected under the attorney-client privilege – and therefore – are not subject to discovery."

While I am trying to act in a civilized manner, this is the second time in a week that I have had to warn you about your client's behavior, and specifically, his obsession with contacting or otherwise harassing my clients. I believe there was no uncertainty in the past when I expressed to you that this would not be tolerated under any circumstances.

I warned you that there would be consequences, and now, there will be consequences as follows:

This correspondence constitutes my first attempt to conference with you concerning the entry of a preliminary injunction against your client to prohibit him from contacting me, from contacting my family, from contacting any person who is my employer, and from contacting any person with whom I have any sort of independent contractor relationship including, but not limited to, an attorney-client relationship.

I need to hear from you or otherwise have this ongoing problem resolved before the scheduling conference. Otherwise, I will be filing for the injunctive relief. ”

Gavin McInnes Leak

to me

Wed, May 9, 12:04 PM (13 days ago)

I am leaking this from 2 secret proud boy groups. Gavin just posted this. This is in reference to your video on twitter showing him to be racist.

"These videographer stalkers are making us look like bitches. First, EVERYONE should report this Twitter post for hate speech and have your members do the same. At the very least, we can probably get it taken down and maybe get his verified profile deleted. They want Gavin McInnes fired? They want to attack our group?

LET'S SHOW THEM THERE ARE CONSEQUENCES!!!
THESE FCKS ARE WAY TOO COMFORTABLE!!!
IF WE DO NOTHING, WE SEND A MESSAGE THAT IT'S OPEN SEASON ON PROUD BOYS!! IT'S NOT!!!

Let's get the social media profiles, phone numbers and addresses for their bosses, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, boyfriends, friends and get to work.

- Hooker ads for his mother all over the internet
- Craigslist ads for orgies, yard sales...
- Thousands of dollars of food should be delivered to their houses

IM NOT SAYING ANYONE SHOULD GO STAB ANYONE. BE SMART! POST ANY IDEAS OR INFO YOU HAVE IN THE COMMENTS. POYB*

By the way, in case Jason Van Dyke and any of his "Proud Boys" are interested in paying Retzlaff a little visit for harassment purposes, the dude is pretty easy to find. Which is surprising because members of the McGibney Gang have been claiming for over FOUR YEARS that all kinds of super secret FBI / AFT / and Grand Juries have been looking for our American Hero & Honorary Admin of the BV Files Thomas Retzlaff.

ESPLANADE PLACE

2402 E. ESPLANADE LN, PHOENIX, AZ 85016

ABOUT ESPLANADE PLACE

Esplanade Place is an ultra-luxurious condominium community in the heart of the Biltmore District, within the Esplanade. Built at the turn of the 21st-century, this community was a model for developers to follow at that time. Located just off the corner of 24th Street and Camelback, a highly desired location for urban living in Phoenix, Esplanade Place grants residents an easy walk to a wide array of shops and restaurants nearby. Residents of the building can also enjoy exclusive access to an unparalleled rooftop pool and spa, barbecue grills and lounge area. Esplanade Place is a 12-story, 56-unit community developed by the Pivotal Group and former home builder Geoffrey Edmunds who sold his luxury home building business to Toll Brothers back in 1995. Esplanade Place, at the time it was constructed, was the first luxury condo project built in the Valley since the 18-story, 59-unit Crystal Point project was built in 1990.
